INDUSTRY NEWS

- Morgan Stanley Investment Management has announced the creation of the Morgan Stanley Global Long/Short Fund. The Global Long/Short Fund is a fund of hedge funds that will be accessible to eligible individual investors and smaller institutional clients with a relatively low minimum investment of $100,000. The fund will be managed for long-term capital appreciation and to have moderate volatility. It will invest in approximately 20-25 long/short equity funds. - Rep. Richard Baker (R-LA) resigned from Congress on February 6, 2008 to become the President and Chief Executive of the Managed Funds Association, the main trade association representing hedge funds. Baker was on the House Financial Services Committee and was the chair of the Capital Markets, Insurance and Government-Sponsored Enterprises subcommittee. He calls himself "a very committed, free-market person." ("Baker to Leave Congress For Hedge-Fund Group" WSJ.com)
- Despite the mortgage crisis and lower than expected bonuses this year, Goldman Sachs and Citigroup, on behalf of seven other banks, delivered over $189,000 to the Neediest Cases Fund. Goldman, which raised more than three-quarters of the total, appointed analysts to oversee fundraising and reminded co-workers to submit their donations. Competition arose between departments and therefore increased the amount of donations. ("Wall Street Does its Share to Help Fellow New Yorkers" NYTimes.com)
- Baring Asset Management will be launching a new hedge fund on March 1, 2008 that will invest in the Asia region. The absolute return fund will be structured as a multi-strategy equity vehicle and has a target return of over 20% per year. The portfolio will consist of close to 50 diversified positions and will be listed on the Irish Stock Exchange. The minimum investment will be approximately $184,000 USD.
